

Ștefana Maria DIMA is a Senior Researcher, PhD, Habil., affiliated to the East European Center for Research in Economics and Business (ECREB), West University of Timișoara (WUT). Her main research interests lie primarily in the fields of international financial reporting, quality of information on capital markets and determinants of economic growth. She has published in well-known journals, such as Finance Research Letters, Social Indicators Research, International Review of Economics and Finance, Applied Economics, Economic Modelling.

During her academic career, Mrs. DIMA has been a Research Fellow at Università degli Studi di Trieste, Italy (2006/2007), Visiting Researcher (2002, 2012) and Visiting Professor (2015) at Università Ca'Foscari, Venice, Italy and Guest Researcher at Università del Salento, Lecce, Italy (2018). In addition, Mrs. DIMA was the recipient of a governmental research fellowship Borsa di ricerca e formazione post-dottorale „Nicolae Iorga” at L'Istituto Romeno di Cultura e Ricerca Umanistica di Venezia (2015). Moreover, she attended the Post-Doctoral Studies in Economics: training program for elite researchers (SPODE) organized by The Romanian Academy, Bucharest (2011-2013).

Currently, she is a PhD Supervisor at WUT, and she acts as a reviewer for several journals and conferences. For more on Mrs DIMA's scientific activity, please check <https://orcid.org/0000-0003-0452-7216>; <https://scholar.google.com/citations?user=1PYRjEUAAAJ&hl=en&oi=ao>.